

PINKY PROMISE

Jess Best

I pinky promise to annoy you forever
When I lean in front of your screen to get attention
When I say “Hi Hungry, I’m Flower”
When I make fun of your last name
When I tell you bad jokes
That’s me pinky promising to annoy forever.

I pinky promise to never stay angry at you
Because even when i’m mad for you leaving i’m crafting for you
Because even when i’m mad i’m listening to a song that reminds me of you
Because even when i’m mad i’m sitting somewhere wondering if your okay
Because even when i’m mad i’m wishing you were here with me
That’s me letting you know I’m never going to stay mad.

I pinky promise to be your best friend forever
When I tell you do have friends
When I tell you, you won’t fail
When I put my hand on your leg to stop the shaking
When I check you’ve taken Panadol
That’s me pinky promising to be your best friend forever.

I pinky promise that you never have to hide
Because you feeling angry or sad is valid and I want to hear about it
Because hearing what’s going on in your life is important to me
Because listening to you rant about books and video games is the best
Because just hearing your voice is nice
That’s me letting you know you never have to hide.

I pinky promise to be there with you forever
When you wake up in the morning
When your spiralling
When your playing your video game
When you fall asleep at night
That's me promising to be there with you forever.

I pinky promise to not hide forever
Because one day I'll be confident
Because one day I will trust them
Because one day I won't be scared
Because one day I will be fearless and kiss you in a crowded room
That's me letting you know I will not hide forever.

I pinky promise to love you forever
When you focus and can't hear me
When you worry you've failed
When your so happy and excited about something
When your doing nothing but standing
That's why I pinky promise to love you forever.
