

CREATION (NOUN)

Will Eland

creation (noun)

meaning:

1: something new that has been created

2: you are born:

a) you cry

testing your lungs for the first time.

you have been taken from the familiar

the only world you have known.

you will learn to smile, to speak to find yourself. one day -

3: something that is made or produced

b) you laugh

and it finally sounds like you.

you have stepped out of the familiar

into the world you have longed to know.

you have built yourself anew

and when you look in the mirror -

4: the act of creating

c) you are reborn -
forged -
created.

see also:

transition (noun)

