

THE LEGEND OF THE LOVE SHIELD

Anonymous

Long ago a shield called the Love Shield was the strongest shield in the universe. But one day the flowers that the shield protected got so much magic that the shield exploded. The only people watching were eight girls. They immediately decided to protect the flowers from enemies.

Not long after, a few boys tried to attack the flowers. There were many attacks. Then one day, the shield came back. The flowers had land powers. That is how the Earth had plants.
